

Encountering Christ in the Gospel of Mark

January- Week 1 2020

Mark 1-4

What have you noticed about the author's writing style?

If the Gospel of Mark were a movie genre, what genre would it be (hint: the word "immediately" occurs 47 times in this Gospel alone. Also, is most of the focus so far on what Jesus is saying or doing)?

Based on these first four chapters of Mark, what words best describe Jesus?

What have you learned about Jesus so far?

If you were a character within the first four chapters, who do you think you'd be and why?

What has surprised you? What questions do you have?
